Tenancy Document Review

Calling all residential landlords.....

Are you sure you have all the correct tenancy documents in place to enable you to use the section 21 process?

Don't leave it until the day when you need to serve notice on your tenant(s) only to find one piece of that jigsaw is missing taking away the option of serving a 'no fault' notice.

Contact me now for a fixed fee review of your tenancy documents so you can have peace of mind that should the day arrive that you need to start the process to obtain possession of your let property, you can be confident that everything is already in place.

Being a landlord can be stressful enough, don't leave it too late....
